

Saskatchewan Forage Council AAFC Swift Current Field Day

Thursday June 28, 2018

12:30-5:30PM

Swift Current Research and Development Centre
Swift Current, SK

ADAPTATION IN A COMPETITIVE ECONOMIC AND AGRICULTURAL ENVIRONMENT

12:30pm Registration and Welcome

1-3:30pm Swift-Current Research and Development Centre Project Field Tour

Dr. Iwaasa - Development of best management practices for cost-effective and successful establishment of saline forages for Saskatchewan

Best management practices for the re-introduction of sainfoin into existing alfalfa and grass pastures for western Canada

Dr. Schellenberg - Perennial mixtures study: discussion of benefits, results, future research

Native Species Breeding Program: Discussion of why, benefits already identified, genomic work

Native deferred pastures, Impacts of time of grazing

Dr. Bainard - Best management practices for annual forage polycultures

New legume trial: Forage Galega

4:00pm Field Tour Wrap-up & Networking Break

4:15-5:30pm Saskatchewan Forage Council AGM
Swift Current Research and Development Centre

TO REGISTER CONTACT THE SASKATCHEWAN FORAGE COUNCIL @ 1-306-421-8538
Registration Deadline: June 23, 2018

Please dress appropriately for the weather, some field driving may be necessary