

Saskatchewan Forage Council Welcomes Newly Appointed Minister of Agriculture

The Saskatchewan Forage Council (SFC) is pleased to welcome and congratulate the Honourable Lyle Stewart on his recent appointment as Saskatchewan Minister of Agriculture.

Over the past years, the SFC has enjoyed an excellent working relationship with the Honourable Bob Bjornerud and wishes to extend sincere gratitude and appreciation to him as he leaves this position.

SFC President Aaron Ivey noted, “we want to say thank you to Bob Bjornerud for his efforts on behalf of Saskatchewan producers. We have appreciated his willingness to hear from the industry and listen to our concerns. The opportunity for dialogue and open communication with the Ministry has been a definite asset for Saskatchewan’s forage and livestock sector and we anticipate continuing this into the future with the new Minister. The SFC welcomes the Honourable Lyle Stewart to his new position and we look forward to continued dialogue with the Minister and the Ministry staff. The future for our industry is extremely positive and partnerships between industry and government are critical to our ongoing success.”
