

Saskatchewan Forage Council Elects 2012/2013 Board of Directors and Executive

One new director and several returning individuals were recently named to the Saskatchewan Forage Council (SFC) Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting held on June 28, 2012 near Lestock, SK. The SFC welcomes Neil McLeod with Northstar Seed Ltd. from Rosetown, SK to the Board. Re-elected to the Board for a renewed term were Nancy Johns, producer from Watrous, SK, and Trevor Plews, Ducks Unlimited Canada, Yorkton, SK.

The SFC recognized retiring Board members Clayton Myhre (Pickseed at Nipawin, SK) and Leam Craig, producer at Biggar, SK. Clayton and Leam's contributions to the SFC and the entire forage industry during their time on the Board are sincerely appreciated. Myhre completes two terms on the SFC Board and Craig steps down after seven years, including three years as President and most recently Past President.

Rounding out the Board of Directors for 2012/2013 are Aaron Ivey, Ituna, SK; Alan Iwaasa, Agriculture & Agri-Food Canada, Swift Current, SK; Bruce Coulman, University of Saskatchewan; David Kerr, Lashburn, SK; Ryan Sommerfeld, Medstead, SK; Fran Walley, University of Saskatchewan; Charlotte Ward, Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture, Yorkton, SK; and Kelly Williamson, Pambrun, SK. Michel Tremblay, Provincial Forage Specialist, Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture, continues as ex officio member of the board.

Re-elected as SFC President for 2012/2013 is Aaron Ivey with Nancy Johns serving as Vice-President.

For a complete listing of the current Board of Directors and contact information visit the SFC online.

- 30 -

For more information contact:

Janice Bruynooghe, Executive Director
Saskatchewan Forage Council 306.867.8126

jbruynooghe@saskforage.ca

www.saskforage.ca

"The Saskatchewan Forage Council is committed to the growth and development of all aspects of Saskatchewan's forage and grassland industry including production, protection, harvesting, storage, utilization, and marketing."