

Saskatchewan Forage Council
Elects 2011/2012 Board of Directors and Executive

Three new directors were recently named to the Saskatchewan Forage Council (SFC) Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting held on June 27, 2011 in Swift Current. The SFC welcomes: David Kerr, producer from Lashburn, SK; Dr. Fran Walley, Department of Soil Science at the University of Saskatchewan; and Kelly Williamson, producer from Pambrun, SK. Re-elected to the Board for a renewed term were Dr. Bruce Coulman, Department of Plant Sciences at the University of Saskatchewan, and Leam Craig, producer from Biggar, SK.

The SFC also recognized three retiring Board members including: Dean Bollefer, Lake Lenore, SK; Kevin Elmy, Saltcoats, SK; and Dr. Jeff Schoenau, Department of Soil Science, University of Saskatchewan. The contributions of these individuals to the SFC and the entire forage industry are sincerely appreciated.

Rounding out the current Board of Directors are Aaron Ivey, Ituna, SK; Alan Iwaasa, Agriculture & Agri-Food Canada, Swift Current, SK; Nancy Johns, Watrous, SK; Clayton Myhre, Pickseed, Nipawin, SK; Trevor Plews, Ducks Unlimited Canada, Yorkton, SK; and Charlotte Ward, Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture, Yorkton, SK. Ex officio member of the Board is Michel Tremblay, Provincial Forage Specialist, Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture.

Elected as SFC President for 2011/2012 is Aaron Ivey, who together with his wife Adrienne and parents, Bob and Karen, own and operate Evergreen Cattle Company at Ituna, SK. Leam Craig moves to Past President, completing three years as President.
